KING EDWARD VII.'S HANDS VAN WYCK'S ACT OFFENDS LONDON.

Papers Condemn Discourtesy, but Hold Tammany Hall Alone Responsible.

The London papers resent keenly | man in the station house in the Mayor Van Wyck's lack of sympathy in keeping the City Hall flag full-mast. They discriminate carefully, however, and blame Tammany Hall, not New forkers generally, for what they con-elder gross Alscourtesy.

sider gross discourtesy.

The Evening News says:

"It is satisfactory to learn that only one flag in New York was not placed at half-mast. It is even more satisfactory to find that the one exception was the flag on the Tammany City Hall. Perhaps, after all, this is the greatest compliment to England that New York senid have paid."

"You had too much whiskey as inght," said Magistrate pool.

"You had too much whiskey as inght," said Magistrate pool.

"Well, we'll call it Jersey lightning, and let it go at that—E," said the Magistrate and Skinner walked out. The following leiters have been received by The Evening World concertaing the failure of Mayor Van Wyck to half-mast the Clip Hall flag.

To the Editor of The Evening World.

All halt to Mayor Van Wyck for not could have paid."

here should be one exception, and it to To the Editor of The Evening World well that that exception should be Tam-

The St. James's Gazette says: There are men so lost to all sense of what is manly and worthy that they would not hesitate to advertise themselves by trampling on the tenderest could be expected of such a boor?

the day of the funeral."

His Zeal Turned to Wor.

ors the wind-swept desolation of fists in the direction of the Mayor's personnece and yelled, "To h— with Van typical "Cockney."

misrepresented the generous feelings of Americans as to refuse to show the official respect to the memory of Queen Victoria which his countrymen are showing everywhere in the world. They form too contemptible a group to excite the smallest anger."

Mayor Edward Hoos, of Jersey City, does not take the same view of haifmasting flags as Mayor Van Wyck. To an Evening World reporter this morning he said:

"I was not in Jersey City when the Queen died, so there was nobody there with the authority to place the flag at half mast. Haif I been there it would have been so placed. It will be lowered on the day of the funeral."

Wyck and his actiating Irish colorive. A READER, Newark N. J.

To the Ellior of The Evening World. Why is it that these narrow-mitded Englishmen are calling down Mayor Van Wyck for not lowering the finglishmen are calling down Mayor Van Wyek for not lowering the flag at woman? If she was a good woman whith with shape the properties of the cause she was a good woman? If she was a good woman? If she was a good woman when with would she let her subjects in India about $50,000,000 when she died?

My in Evening down Mayor Van Wyck for not lowering the flag at her properties. The properties of the cause she was a good woman? If she was a good woman when the properties in India about $50,000,000 when she died?

My in the Elitor of The Evening World.

Why is it that these narrow-mitded Englishmen are calling down Mayor Van Wyck for not lowering the finglishmen are calling down Mayor Van Wyck for not lowering the finglishmen are calling down Mayor Van Wyck for not lowering the finglishmen are calling down the city Hall at hat these narrow-mitded Englishmen are calling down Mayor Van Wyck for not lowering the finglishmen are calling down Mayor Van Wyck for not lowering the finglishmen are calling down the called Englishmen are calling down the called Englishmen are calling down the called Englishmen are calling down the called Englishm

Across the wind-swept desolation of City Hall Park early to-day Policeman Bradley saw a man stagger, looking upward in the teeth of the storm, shaking his fists and muttering imprecations.

"Tis the flag's bothering him," said of hapless lives have been sacrificed to saidsfy the theatlate greed of the Government of which she was head. Better far to lower the flag in reverence to ing his fists and mastering tions.

"Tis the flag's bothering him," said Bradley, "He's a-wearin' mutton-choos and walkin' like he drank the new King's health too deep."

Bradley was right. Abreast of the Bradley was right. Abreast of the hall entrance the man halted, shook his hall entrance the man halted hall entrance halted hall entrance hall entrance hall entrance hall be those whose mandil near the hall entrance hall be those whose mandil near the hall entrance hall be those whose mandil near the hall entrance hall be those whose mandil near the hall entrance hall be those whose mandil near the hall entrance hall be those whose mand halted hall entrance hall be those whose mandil near the hall entrance hall be those whose mandil near the hall entrance hall be those whose mandil near the hall entrance hall be those whose mandil near the hall be those whose mandil near the hall be thos

RULERS OF THE EARTH

life. He enjoyed enormous popularity

The House then adjourned.

The Lord Chancellor, Lord Halsbury, keeping. They assured him of the unand Speaker, William Court Gully, read grudging support of his loyal subjects v the message intheir respective Houses. It was as follows:

Meanur from King.

share the deep sorrow which has befallen His Majesty and the nation by th lamentable death of his mother, the late lamentable death of his mother, the late lamentable death of his mother of which was adopted, the members stand Queen. Her devotion to the welfare of her country and her people, and her wise The House then adjourned until Feb. 11. and beneficent rule during the sixty-jour years of her glorious reign will ever be held in affectionate memory by ear loyal NATIONS READY and devoted subjects throughout the dominions of the British Empire."

In the House of Commons Mr. A. J. mifeer, First Lord of the Treasury and Government leader, in moving the ad- German Squadron Ordered the palaces. dress in reply to the message, said the House in all its long history had never met under zadder circumstances or with a clearer duty to express the universal sorrow extending from end to end of the Empire. The sorrow was felt not only as a national but also as an irreparable perthe magnitude of the blow which had allen on the country. In the whole history of the British Monarchy there had grief had been so deeply scated.

King More Powerful.

THE END OF A GREAT EPOCH HAD COME. An epoch more crowded Prussia. velopments than any period of like length in the history of the world. THE INFLUENCE OF THE CROWN IN THE BRITISH CONSTITUTION WAS NOT A DIMINISHING BUT AN INREASING FACTOR, AND MUST CONTINUE TO ACREASE WITH THE GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT

Col. Private by Acres of the BELF-GOVERNING COMMU-TIES OVER THE SEA. WHICH day. M. THROUGH THE PERSON OF

"You had too muc

The Mayor of New York is a creature of Croker's. He was elected by Temmany and rules the city in the inferests of Tammany. It is well that the creats of Tammany and the control of the co serviments of their fellow-creatures.

"To these people are thus denied the finer feelings of humanity, and they are more to be pitted than condemned. They could fitly be associated with the creature of Tammany Hall who so grossly misrepresented the generous feelings of Americans as to refuse to show the Wyck! Ull half-mast that flag myself."

With that he dashed up the steps and tried to climb one of the stone pillars of the portico. He went up a bit and slipped back again. The snow had made the pillars wet and slippery. Again and silpped back again. The snow had made the pillars wet and slippery. Again and silp half-mast the master of the while uttering imprecations against the Mayor.

"Be off wid ye and get yer own jag half-mast at teast innestents only of Greater New York. In regard to having the flag at half-mast at teast innestents only of Greater New York. In regard to having the flag at half-mast at teast innestents of the otter was unapproachable, Queen Victoria.

The leleve if a vote was cast by the people (not clizens only) of Greater New York. In regard to having the flag at half-mast at teast innestents of the otter was unapproachable, Queen Victoria.

The mounts on King Edward's foreinger are plainly shown in the picture-finger are plainl

Men and women with these hands are often magnificently endowed. They are quick and clever, but lack the ploiding in an often to the great example of Queen a life of continuous labor, of the Queen a life of continuous labor, short as was the laterval between her often as much beloved in formal signature of a public document and countries. Congratula.

Men and women with these hands are thought endowed. They are quick and clever, but lack the ploiding in declity of purpose and a clear concept and clever, but lack the ploiding in declity of purpose and a clear concept are brilliant talkers, but lack the ploiding in declity of purpose and a clear concept are possessary to great achievements. They are student.

They judge by impulse rather than the cason, and are much influenced by surroundings. They are susceptible to the charm of the other sex, not overcome the charm of the other sex, not overcome stant, but always sympathetic and general action of the student.

Short as was the laterval between her final signature of a public document and countries. Congratula. and was almost as much beloved in for-eign courts and countries. Congratulaand was almost as much beloved in foreign courts and countries. Congratulations could be tendered him with earnest sincerity and in the BELIEF that he wheels of the administration, as witness the vast mass of untouched documents awaiting the hand of the sovereign.

Lord Kimberley, the Liberal leader in the House of Lords, and the Archbishop of Canterbury seconded the address.

The Rosse then adjourned.

In moving a double response of contact the House of Lords, and the Archbishop of Canterbury seconded the address.

The Rosse then adjourned.

the new sovereign were safe in his and the greatest of all blessings, to reign over a happy, contented people and that in the eyes of posterity his sured that the House of Commons will an appropriate sequel to the great

FOR FUNERAL.

to Spithead-French Ad. miral Named.

sonal loss. It was hard yet to realize in the navas display on the occasion of squadron will probably be composed or never been a case in which the national the coast-defense battleships Hagen and Odin, the second-class cruiser Victoria naime will head the French delegation at the funeral of Queen Victoria, Ad-

Col. Pritzelwitz, started for England to-

THE PERSON OF Royalty to this city to attend the Royalty to this city to attend the shipping.

THE PERSON OF ROYALTY OF TURN O

BY HARRIET HUBBARD AYER. KING EDWARD VIL'S HANDS

AND THOSE OF HIS QUEEN.

@_____ New Sovereign's Fingers an Index to His Luxury-Loving Nature - The

The hand of King Edward VII, is ruthful index of the character and ten In the first place, it is small and arisperatic in its form, not womanish, but

Royal Thumb Denotes

a Man of Strong Grasp red with adipose tissue for symmetry The texture of the skin is fine and oft, showing sensibility. The pores are easily seen, a sign of a nature not int his brothers or of his imperial (1990) (1990) (1990) ephew, the Emperor of Germany, They desire to succeed in any great undertak- WHAT QUEEN'S a pleasure-loving, impulsive nature, with a strong love of luxury. The finger-rouble or apopiexy.

tion.

The thumb of King Edward's hand is most interesting. The English people will be surprised at the sudden strength of purpose and firmness of grasp of their new sovereign, now that he will be called upon to show his force.

Ilia Thumbs Denote Power.

King Edward has thumbs of signifi-cast power, firm-jointed, long, well-shaped, showing not only refinement and strength, but intellectual ability to carry out any object or plan deter-mined upon.

rous will the crowned heads and their QUEEN NOT TO outes be that the Royal Palaces cannot afford shelter for them all.

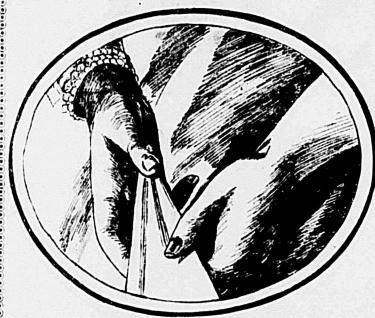

gaged for the occasion, and the minor Her Body Removed to the Royalties will lodge there, while the

Among those who have already signi- COWES, Isle of Wight, Jan. 25.-The function are Emperor William of Germany. King George of Greece, King jackets from the royal yacht. Michael and Sergius of Russia, the Dukes of Aosta, Saxe-Coburg-Gotha and will be commanded by Prince Henry of sia, Prince Arnulf of Bavarla and repre- Brodrick, Secretary of tSate for War, sentatives of Spain, France, the Sultan

All the great powers will send war gradually evolving. The remains of the miral de Lajaille having declined for gathering of the British fleet, through Queen will be taken to Portsmouth on which the Queen's body will be consered, on the Royal yacht. remain on the boat Friday night,

A large German squadron will be com-Feb. 1. manded by Prince Henry of Prussia. prother of the Kaiser, and there will be

.

THE QUEEN'S HANDS.

HANDS TELL

Most Delicate Saint-Like Nature Revealed by the Royal thumb shows a strength of will and responsibility, and many cares and many idelity of purpose and a clear conception of logical sequence never found in the psychic hand of shadute marks.

against the grosser elements of existence.

Oneen Alexandra's hands are long. The hands of England's new Queen have developed a strength they could not have shown to-day had the world been tapering fingegrs tipped with long, altapering fingegrs tipped with long, almond-shaped nails.

Men and women with these beautiful well as by direct Injury. Usually they They are never given to denunctation Show Her Snow-Like Purity. One understands, on examining these I typical hands, the sweet chastity, the Chapel at Osborne by Bluejackets.

revenge.

There is nothing weak or timorous about the King's thumb, and unless thou the King's thumb, and unless the transport of the type known as in much mistaken, the hour approaches in which the Hritish sovereign will formed thumbs hespeak.

They have with years developed into the philosophical and diplomatic type known to palmists us "the conic hand."

They are small rather than large, the palm tapers slightly, and the fingers are failed at the base and taper at the tips.

Many persons confuse the conic with the psychic type of hand, which is also narrow, with extremely long, pointed and fourth fingers closed is a sign that however frank the subject to the surface of the content of the polyment of the grant fluored formed through the first time in his life exert the full capacity, which his long, logical, well-formed through the first time in his life exert the full capacity, which his long, logical, well-formed through the first time in his life exert the full capacity, which his long, logical, well-formed through the first time in his life exert the full capacity, which his long, logical, well-formed through the first time in his life exert the full capacity, which his long, logical, well-formed through the first time in his life exert the full capacity, which his long logical, well-formed through the first time in his life.

Women with such hands are innately life, which his long logical, well-formed through the first time in his life.

Women with such hands are innately life, and muless in which his long and unless in which his long and unless the first time in his life.

They are small rather than large, the people who, remembering the fall these, and respond unfailingly to the his heat, with his new obligation, the form the first lead.

The psychic fingers indicate an intens.

character.

The Queen of England has doubtless wrong her hands as humbler wives and mothers in every land have done in hours of grief and desolution.

With pathetic dignity and tightly closed hands, she has borne her crown of sorrows in the death of her closed born, the son who was to have been in his turn England's monarch.

The Queen's Thumb. Queen Alexandra's thumb gives the hands are gentle in the most delicate sense of the word.

They are scarcely fitted for the rude nattles of life, and suffer exquisite pain through the insensibility of others, as well as by direct injury. Usually they Queen Alexandra has the reputation of being tactful, but the sign for the waist-like appearance, or narrow-moulded cen-tre between the first and second joint, is onspicuously absent. I should say she lacked diplomacy, chile King Edward's thumb exhibits hat attribute to an extraordinary de-HARRIET HUBBARD AYER.

SERVICES IN OLD TRINITY. LIE IN STATE.

Big Meeting of British Subjects to Be Held in This City.

their intention of attending the body of Queen Victoria was removed to the Queen's funeral in Trinity Church, and Considers Postum in every way the Chapelle Ardente, in the dining As there is seating room for but nine and considers Postum in every way hundred, admission will be by ticket.
Should any of the British societies dewhose names appear on the Queen's lieuvenly liest and in St. James's, visiting list, officers of the army and Ai a meeting of the British resi and Roumania, the Archduke Franz navy and a few prominent residents of of New York City held in the rooms of fee in its place. He says he has the Downtown Association. Sir Percy never been as well in twenty-five the bland.

The Marquis of Lansdowne, Secretary of tSate for Foreign Affairs; Field Marshal Earl Roberts, Commander-in-chief of the forces, and Mr. William St. John Brodrick, Secretary of tSate for War, Will be among those who will view Her Majesty's remains.

It has been definitely decided that there will be no public lying in state.

The arangements for the functal are gradually evolving. The remains of the state of New York.

The proper is the Downtown Association. Sir Percy never been as well in twenty-five years as he is at present, and gives the entire credit to Postum. Nearly every coffee user is ill in some part of the body. Coffee does not directly affect the same organs in every man or woman, but the effect and sympathy of the British residents of New York.

The arangements for the functal are gradually evolving. The remains of the state.

The arangements for the functal are gradually evolving. The remains of the state.

Clothing Firm Fails.

board the Royal yacht Alberta and will Prince Frederick William of Germany

PHILIPPINES CHIEF RABBI

Action by Congress Sends in Report.

report of the Secretary of War, ining the report of the Taft Philipoine Commission. In his message the but its act of legislation, "and other conditions and immediate wants of the Concluding the President says: I earnestly recommend legislation or which the government of the ids may have authority to assist in a peaceful, industrial development industrial development of War."

NAVAL BILL PASSED.

ppropriations Measure Finds Favor in Congress.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25. -The Naval appropriations bill was passed in the

HOBSON LEAVES HOSPITAL.

tero of Merrimae, Entirely Recovered, Will Write Cervers. Lieut, Richmond Pearson Hobson has nnounced his recovery from typhoid or several weeks. He will leave the institution to-mor w and go to the house of a friend at West Fifty-fourth street.

reatment at the Presbyterian Hospital

"I'm feeling first class," said he to iy. "I am going to write Admiral ervera my congratulations on his apintment to attend the Queen's funeral. he Admiral cabled me a solicitous inas I recover my strength entirely I shall

FUGITIVE MANGLED BY TRAIN

Run Over Two Huura After He Excaped from Hospital.

FISHKILL LANDING, N. Y., Jan. 25.
William Kelly escaped from the Hudson River State Hospital to-day and two hours later was mangled by a train here.
He begged to shot to end his sufferings.

CITY FEARS HYDROPHOBIA.

light Dogs in Walthom Had Rabies, and a Boy Bitten.

WALTHAM, Mass., Jan. 25.-Consid. ned outbreak of hydrophobia. Eight Harvard Medical School, who has ex-Thus far only one person has been bit-ten. He is Earl Claire, a lad, who has been sent to the Pasteur Institute, New York, for treatment,

MRS. NATION MOVES ON.

HOPE, Kan., Jan. 25.-Mrs. Carrie Nation arrived here to-day, but did not attempt to wreck any saloons because After making a speech on the street she left for Ottawa.

She said she intended to continue her crusade through Kansas and then go into Missouri.

Bitten by Hagh Grant's Hound One of ex-Mayor Hugh Grant's big hounds attacked Frederick Dance on the highway at Oradell, N. J., to-day badly injuring him. Dr. Blankstone dressed the wound.

on the day of Queen Victoria's funeral STURDY BLACKSMITHS

Cotton Exchange to Close. The Cotton Exchange will be closed

Learn Facts About Coffee. Two blacksmiths of Northampton lass. Messrs. Thayer and McGrath both discovered that coffee was the cause of heartburn and sour stomach continually troubling them in spite of active exercise.

They left off the coffee and began taking Postum Food Coffee. The trouble disappeared at once, and both nen are now enthusiastic over Pos-

If powerful men like blacksmiths re affected by the drugs contained in ordinary coffee, it would seem folly or brain workers to try to withstand he effects of it.

Hiram Day, a man seventy-five years old, also of Northampton, had used coffee for a great many years and developed serious bilious Memorial services will be held at 3 bles. A few months ago he left off o'clock in the afternoon on the day of the Queen's funeral in Trinity Church. Coffee. He has recovered his health

Leopold of Belgium and King Chart's

The only persons who will be admitted sire it, similar services will be held at too, Mass., a pencil manufacturer, was to view the remains to-day will be those the same time in the Church of the troubled with dyspepsia and kidney At a meeting of the British residents off coffee and use Postum Food Cofneys, liver, heart, lungs, bowels or some other part of the body, or the Queen will be taken to Portsmouth on board the Royal yacht Alberta and will remain on the boat Friday night, dealers in clothing, at 714 Broadway, to dealers in clothing, at 714 Broadway, to day argined for the benefit of creditors, to Gerhard Tiction. L. Z. Vinstler, of 18 Broadway, is the autories for the body, or the trouble may show itself in a general nervous and unbalanced condition. When coffee is dispensed with, and nature begins to set up a cure, it is Broadway, is the autories for the body, or the trouble may show itself in a general nervous and unbalanced condition. When coffee is dispensed with, and nature begins to set up a cure, it is Broadway, is the autories for the body, or the touched the body of the body, or the trouble may show itself in a general nervous and unbalanced condition. When coffee is dispensed with, and set of general nervous and unbalanced condition. When coffee is dispensed with, and the property of the body, or the touched the property of the body, or the touched the property of the body of the body, or the touched the property of the body of the body, or the touched the property of the body of the touched the property of the body of the Royalty to this city to attend the shipping.

The Grand Duke of Baden has given notice of his intention of attending the anything of the kind recorded. So num-> millar figure in the Chetto of New York. is ill at his home, 263 Henry street, and will probably preach no more. The orthodox Jewish congregations of the east side will hold a meeting within a oysters he was eating. He had the few days to raise a fund to take care of him and his family.

President Recommends Familiar Figure in Ghetto Valuable Pearl in the Will Probably Preach No More.

Rabbi Joseph came to this city from Russia in 1887 at the request of the orthodox Jewish congregations on the east side. The "schoeds," or butchers who prepare meat according to the laws of Moses and the Talmud, all work under the supervision of a rabbi. These rabbis were all under the control of Chief Rabbi Joseph and had to secure certificates from him in order to work.

In some of the big slaughter houses fifty or more "schoeds" are employed and a half dozen rabbis are necessary to superintend the killing of the animals.

Rabbi Joseph has writen a number of books on religious topics. He has a work unfinished which, he says, would have made him famous all over the world. He has worked on it for years but may never complete it.

MIS. Walten, has bursed of which her husband is pastor, church of which her husband is very proud of her unique ring.

As for the tradesman who sold the oysters in which the pearl was found, he believes that he is pursued by a "non-doo."

"If I had known the pearl was found, he believes that he is pursued by a "hou-doo."

"If I had known the pearl was found, he believes that he is pursued by a "hou-doo."

"If I had known the pearl was found, he believes that he is pursued by a "hou-doo."

"If I had known the pearl was found, he believes that he is pursued by a "hou-doo."

"If I had known the pearl was found, he believes that he is pursued by a "hou-doo."

"If I had known the pearl was found, he believes that he is pursued by a "hou-doo."

"If I had known the pearl was found, he believe Russia in 1887 at the request of the

SHIPPING NEWS.

PORT OF NEW YORK.

OUTGOING STEAMSHSIPS. SAILED TO-DAY.
Ichaka, Progreso. Iroquois, Charleston, Gastern Prince, Colorade, Bruswick, Argentina, Hamilton, Norfolk.

INCOMING STEAMSHIPS.

fdun, Tempico.

Rev. Dr. Warren's Oyster.

East Eighty-third street, told an Evenand to-day presented the ring to his church of which her husband is pastor,

Mrs. Warren, who is organist of th

Overworked Force.

President Murphy, of the Health Department, appointed fifty additional deputy inspectors this morning to assist in the work of vaccination in the city. More vaccinators may be appoint-

Assistant Sanitary Superintendent Dr. Dillingham said this morning that no case of small-pox had been reported for the past twenty-four hours. He also said that Mrs. Emma Lemich, of 106 Beach avenue, who escaped from her home with her child, stricken with small-pox, is still at large.

SMALL-POX IN DISPENSARY.

Vegro with the Marane Pat 75

Patients to Flight. There were seventy-five patients in the forthwestern Dispensary, at the corner of Thirty-sixth street and Ninth avenue, his afternoon when a negro walked in and presented thimself to one of the hysicians. He had small-pox.

Bome patients were scarcely able to hobble when they came, but they got to the doors like sprinters. The negro was Eldridge Whitfield, of 32 West Thirty-seventh street. He was in the fourth day of the disease. He was sent to the Williard Parker Hospital, and from there he will go to North Brother Island.

One Sale in January BYCK BROS One Sele in July

16th Half-Yearly Clearing Sale. Why These Half-Yearly Sales

Always Command Attention. BECAUSE they are an established institution.

BECAUSE they never promise more than they give, and thousands BECAUSE clearing sale prices on Byck Bros,' clothes are known to mean a genuine sacrifice of profit for a legitimate purpose. Price Reductions now are as follows:

$15, $18, $20, $25; Overcoats. FORMERLY $9.80, 12.70, 15.40

FORMERLY Dress Suits, FORMERLY $20,00 and $85.00; Frock Coat and Yest, FORMERLY $15.50. 19.25

HATS, SHOES, UNDERWEAR, Nearly Price HOSIERY AND GLOVES. As usual, necessary alterations will be made promptly free of charge, and money will be refunded without question for any goods returned. Byck Bros

Cutaway Coat & Yest, FORMERLY $10.50. 15.25

Cor. Fulton & Nassau Sts.

Byck Bros 154 to 164 E. 125th St. 34.47

other man that and black wainut fiftings. Saturday only, pound.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

LEMEN AND ORANGE BON BONS—Just pure eagar cream with chopped lemens and chopped oranges. Pound.

LEMEN AND ORANGE BON BONS—Just pure eagar cream with chopped lemens and chopped oranges.

LEMEN AND ORANGE BON BONS—Just pure eagar cream with chopped lemens and chopped oranges.

LEMEN AND ORANGE BON BONS—Just pure eagar cream with chopped lemens and chopped oranges.

LEMEN AND ORANGE BON BONS—Just pure eagar cream with chopped lemens and chopped oranges. lated sugar are used. Have you ever tried ours! Pound.
ASSORTECD FRUIT AND NUT OHOCOLATES—Twenty kinds. Usually sold be been pound. Our price, pound.

